YOUR CANCELLATION RIGHTS

Statutory cancellation rights

You can cancel this policy in the first 14 days (the cooling off period). In your first policy year the cooling off period is 14 days after receipt of the policy documents or the policy purchase date, whichever is later. In subsequent years it is 14 days from the policy renewal date.

We'll provide a full refund within the cooling off period, provided no claims have been made and cancel your policy back to its start date. This will have the same effect as if you never had any cover or protection from this policy.

Cancellation in other circumstances

As long as, in the current period of insurance, you:

- have not received payment for a claim
- are not in the process of making a claim
- have not suffered a loss for which you are intending to make a claim

...you can cancel this policy maintaining the time on cover since the start date. We will subtract an amount of your premium in proportion to the time you have been covered and refund you the rest, excluding:

- any additional options added to your policy (legal expenses, home emergency, key protection)
- our Arrangement and Administration fee

If you are paying by instalments, these will simply stop. However, if you have received payment for, or are in the process of making, a claim either:

- you will have to continue with the instalments until the policy renewal date, or
- at our discretion, we will take the outstanding instalments you owe from any claim payment we make.

If you pay annually and you have received payment for, or are in the process of, making a claim you will not receive any refund of your premium.

OUR CANCELLATION RIGHTS

We'll always try to resolve any issues with you first. But if we can't, we reserve the right to cancel or void your policy. This could happen if:

- You do not report a change of circumstances or you make a change which means you are no longer eligible for the policy.
- You fail to take care of your property.
- You fail to pay your premium.
- You provide information as part of your application, when renewing or making changes that is not true or complete.
- You attempt to make a fraudulent claim.
- You use threatening or abusive behaviour or language towards our staff or suppliers.
