The Financial Services Compensation Scheme

If we or the insurers cannot meet our obligations you may be entitled to compensation from the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS). If you were entitled to compensation under the Scheme, the level and extent of the compensation would depend on the nature of this contract. Most insurance contracts are covered for 90% of the claim with no upper limit. Further information is available from the FSCS.

Duration of policy and renewal

Your HomeProtect home insurance policy, including the additional cover options you have selected, is valid for a period of 12 months from the date you want cover to start (as shown on the schedule). If that is the case, you will need to contact us to ensure we can take payment, so that your cover can continue without interruption.

Easy payment scheme by Direct Debit

To help spread the cost of your policy, you can pay the annual premium by monthly instalments. Please see your insurance offer or schedule for details of the instalment charge. Various other payment facilities are also available.

Law & Jurisdiction applicable to the insurance

The parties are free to choose the law applicable to this insurance policy. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary this insurance shall be governed by the laws of England and Wales and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Important Information

Your cover begins on the start date and continues for a period of 12 months unless you purchase this policy during the term of your buildings and/or contents insurance with us, in which case this cover begins on the date you purchase this policy and ends on the same date as the buildings and/or contents policy expires.

Cooling off Period

You are entitled to cancel this insurance by contacting us within 14 days of either:

1. The date you receive your policy documentation; or
2. The start of the period of insurance

whichever is the later. Your premium will be refunded provided you have not made a claim, but we retain the right to charge a fee to cover our expenses. If we have charged you an administration fee to arrange this insurance, it is non-refundable and will be deducted from any amount due to you as a refund. Please see the document entitled: "Important Information About Our Insurance Services" for details of all fees that apply.

Cancellation and Fees

1. We or the insurer(s) can cancel the insurance by giving you 30 days' written notice by recorded delivery at your last known address. Any return premium due to you will depend on how long this insurance has been in force and whether you have made a claim.
2. Outside the cooling off period, you can also cancel this insurance at any time by contacting us. However there will be no return premium due to you. Details of any non-refundable cancellation or administration fees are contained in the document entitled: "Important Information About Our Insurance Services".
3. If we are unable to collect policy fees, charges, or premiums that are due to us under the terms of your policy, we reserve the right to forward your account to a debt collection company for their assistance. You would then be required to pay all further charges incurred in relation to collection of the debt, in addition to the original sum owed.
4. If any party to this insurance cancels all cover under sections 1 to 6 of the main HomeProtect home insurance policy at any time during the period of insurance, we will automatically cancel all of the additional cover options you purchased and that appear on your latest schedule.

5. If you make a claim which is in any way dishonest, the policy shall become void. If we or the insurer pay any benefit and later discover that your claim was dishonest, we or the insurer will take steps to get the money back.

Consent

It is a condition precedent to the liability of the insurer that their consent to incur legal expenses or professional expenses must firstly be obtained in writing. This consent will be given by the provider on behalf of the insurer if the insured can satisfy the provider that:

- a) It is reasonable to incur legal expenses having regard to the proportionality between the remedy claimed and the legal expenses to be incurred; and
- b) i. where the insured is pursuing, that there are reasonable prospects of proving the other party's legal liability and of recovering the damages claimed or other legal remedy sought; or
ii. where the insured is defending, that the other party does not have reasonable prospects of proving the insured's legal liability; or
iii. in respect of a criminal prosecution where the insured pleads guilty that there is a reasonable prospect of a significant mitigation of the insured's sentence or fine.

If during the course of a claim the insured ceases to satisfy the provider in respect of a) or b) above, indemnity will be withdrawn in respect of legal expenses and professional expenses. The decision to grant consent or to withhold it will be taken on receipt of:

- A fully completed claim form;
- The information and documentation the provider reasonably requests;
- A legal opinion from the appointed representative as to a) and b) above;
- Any advice the provider may deem it necessary to take;
- Evidence of the tenant reference checks made immediately before the commencement of the tenancy agreement.

With the agreement of the insured, the provider may provide assistance in settling disputes, the costs of which will be covered under this policy subject to the payment of the excess or increased excess within the limits of indemnity. The provider at its discretion may require the insured to obtain an opinion from Counsel at the insured's expense as to the merits of the subject matter of the claim such opinion to have regard to the same issues that the provider has in assessing the merits of any legal action. If based upon such opinion the provider is satisfied in respect of a) and b) above the legal expenses and professional expenses in obtaining that opinion will be paid by the insurer within the limits of indemnity. In granting its consent the insurer undertakes to provide indemnity to the insured subject to the terms and conditions of this policy and its schedule but such consent does not imply that all legal expenses or professional expenses will be paid. In particular legal expenses or professional expenses for matters that go beyond the immediate scope of the claim shall be deemed by the insurer to fall outside the indemnity provided by this policy. The provider reserves the right to limit its consent by time and or financial amount of legal expenses or professional expenses and or stage of proceedings to allow for a review of their continued consent.

If after consent has been granted it is shown that the claim has not been brought within the terms and conditions of this policy and its schedule the provider's consent will be withdrawn and no indemnity shall be provided. The insurer shall be entitled to recover any legal expenses and professional expenses previously paid. If the insured elects to proceed with the pursuit or defence of a dispute or legal proceedings to which the provider's consent has been refused through lack of reasonable prospects as required in b) i. to iii. above and if the insured is successful in such pursuit or defence, the insurer will pay legal expenses or professional expenses incurred after such consent had been refused subject to the terms and conditions of this policy.

Instruction and choice of appointed representative and Counsel

The provider will choose an appointed representative to act on behalf of the insured in any claim under certain Sections. Where recourse is necessary to a lawyer and proceedings are issued, the insured is free to choose an appointed representative to act in the name of and on behalf of the insured in any legal proceedings to which the provider has consented subject to the increased excess. The name and address of the appointed representative the insured proposes to instruct must be notified to the provider in writing. The provider will accept such nomination provided the provider is satisfied the proposed appointed representative will co-operate and enable the insured to comply with the terms and conditions of this policy and the provider's standard terms of engagement in force at the date the claim is accepted by the provider in regard to the particular legal proceedings and in particular with regard to payment of legal expenses or professional expenses. In all other claims the provider will choose the appointed representative subject to the excess. A dispute arising from the insured's choice may be referred to Arbitration in accordance with General Condition 1. The insured must not, without the written consent of the provider, enter into any agreement with the appointed representative as to the basis of calculation of legal expenses. The provider may withdraw consent previously given at any time. In selecting the appointed representative the insured shall have regard to its duty to minimise the cost of any claim or legal proceedings.

In all cases the appointed representative shall be appointed in the name of and on behalf of the insured. If in the course of any claim or legal proceedings the appointed representative wishes to instruct Counsel or an expert, Counsel's or the expert's name and an explanation of the necessity for such instruction must be submitted to the provider for consent to the proposed instruction and fee of Counsel or such expert which will not be unreasonably withheld.

Disclosure

It is a condition precedent to the insurer's liability that:

- a) The insured must give the appointed representative and the provider all necessary help and information including a complete and truthful account of the facts of the case and all relevant documentary or other evidence in the insured's possession. The insured must provide, obtain or execute all documents as necessary and attend meetings or conferences as requested;

- b) The provider is entitled to receive from the appointed representative and insured any information, document or advice in connection with any claim and the subject matter of any claim even if privileged. In addition the insured must instruct the appointed representative to provide the provider with regular updates on the progress of the subject matter of any claim and inform the provider immediately if and when any circumstance adversely impacts the factors taken into account in granting the provider's consent. On request the insured will give to the appointed representative any instructions necessary to secure the required access.

Indemnity may be withdrawn if the insured fails to co-operate at all or within a reasonable time with the provider's or the appointed representative's requests.

Payment of legal expenses or professional expenses

All bills for legal expenses or professional expenses which the insured receives from the appointed representative should be forwarded to the provider without delay. If the provider so requires the insured must ask the appointed representative to submit the bill of costs for consideration by the provider's costs lawyer or costs draughtsman or for assessment or certification by the appropriate Law Society, court or tribunal. The insured is responsible for payment of all legal expenses or professional expenses. The insurer may settle these direct if requested by the insured to do so. The payment of some legal expenses or professional expenses does not imply that all legal expenses or professional expenses will be paid.

Offer of settlement

It is a condition precedent to the liability of the insurer that the insured must inform the provider in writing as soon as an offer to settle the subject matter of the claim is received and/or the insured proposes to make an offer of settlement. In any settlement, the insured must have regard to legal expenses or professional expenses incurred or likely to be incurred and the recovery thereof.

No indemnity will be provided if the insured enters into any agreement to settle without the prior written consent of the provider (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld) and the insurer shall be entitled to recover any legal expenses or professional expenses previously paid. If the insured unreasonably rejects an offer of settlement which the provider recommends acceptance of or makes an offer which the provider does not agree no further indemnity shall be provided.

The insurer may at its absolute discretion decide to pay the insured the amount of damages that the insured is claiming or is being claimed against the insured instead of indemnifying the insured for legal expenses or professional expenses. Where the insurer exercises this discretion the insurer will cease to be liable for any further legal expenses or professional expenses.

Recovery of costs

Whenever the insured is awarded costs or under the terms of any settlement where costs are included, those costs are to be repaid to the insurer. The insured and their appointed representative must make every effort to make a full recovery of costs.

Where a settlement purports to be a global or a without costs settlement or where costs are awarded but not recovered, the insured agrees that a fair and reasonable proportion of that settlement will be deemed costs and due to the insurer. Where such a settlement is paid in instalments all costs to the insurer shall be paid first.

Appeal procedure

If, following legal proceedings to which the provider has consented, the insured wishes to appeal against the judgment or decision of a court or tribunal, the grounds for such appeal must be submitted to the provider through the appointed representative immediately or as soon as practicable so that the provider may consider whether to consent to such further action. If an appeal is lodged against a judgment or decision of a court or tribunal made in favour of the insured following legal proceedings to which the provider has consented, the insured must notify the provider immediately in order that cover shall continue. The provider will inform the appointed representative of its decision. If the provider requires, the insured must co-operate in an appeal against the judgment or decision of a court or tribunal.

Duty to minimise

The insured must take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent claims, HMRC investigations, legal proceedings and disputes. The insured must use every endeavour and take all reasonable measures to minimise the cost and effect of any claim.

Fraudulent claims

If the insured makes any request for payment under this policy knowing it to be fraudulent or false in any respect or ought reasonably in the circumstances to know it to be fraudulent or false or where there is collusion between any parties to the dispute, this policy shall become void and any premiums paid shall be forfeited and the insurer shall be entitled to recover any legal expenses and professional expenses previously paid.

Insolvency or liquidation of the insured

If the insured becomes insolvent or is placed in liquidation, receivership, administration or bankruptcy or enters into a voluntary arrangement or deed of arrangement or if any application is made to the court or meeting convened for any such purpose, the insurer has the right to immediately cease to provide indemnity for legal expenses or professional expenses notwithstanding any previous consent the provider may have granted.

Value Added Tax

If the insured is registered for VAT, the insurer will not pay the VAT element of any legal expenses or professional expenses.

Governing Law

The parties are free to choose the law applicable to this policy. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary this insurance shall be subject to the laws of England and Wales.
